Golden Treasure. We heard vesterday an incident, he written up. Some time last fall Drawer, Harper's Mag. young lady came to St. Joseph from the East to spend the winter with a relative. Unassuming, handsome, graceful and intelligent, she created a most favorable impression with those who enjoyed the pleasure of her acquaintance, and formed an agreeable addition to the social circle in which she moved. She was remarkably retired and Latches, Screws, Sash, Pulleys, &c., &c., at She was remarkably retired and the Hardware Store of HALE & KIRBY. quiet in her manners, and studiously sought to avoid all ostentations display in her apparel, but at the same time exhibited in her dress the most exquisite taste, and in her manners the most elegant refinement. Shortly after the lady's arrival she was called upon by a young gentleman (a resident of this county) who had formed her acquaintance in the East, and soon thereafter his visits b. came frequent and his attentions marked and devoted. It was noticed, as the friendship of the two ripened into intimacy, that the lady began to institute, in a very cautious manner, inquiries for the purpose of ascertaining whether the gentleman had the least idea of her history and condition, and particularly of her financial affairs These inquiries were prosecuted for some time, and seemed to have resulted satisfactorily. 'At least, after a courtship of some months, she committed her happiness and fortunes to the care of the gentleman Trimmings, alluded to, and the celebration of the nuptials were duly reco. ded in the early part of the present spring. The happy couple immediately start ed to the East, and are now residing at the former home of the bride.

And now comes the sequel. The quiet and unassuming young lady was in reality the po-sessor of immence wealth, and the undoubted heiress of an estate worth over four millions of dollars-a fact wholly unknown at the time even to the gentleman who had sought her hand and heart. She had taken this met! od to test the sincerity of her ad SPOUTING. mirer, and finding his heart the true gold, had committed unhesitaingly a gol len treasure and a pure young heart to his keeping, without even permitting the many gallant youths of St. Joseph to catch the faintest idea of the glittering prize apparently within their reach. The parties to this remartic affair are now living happily together, and it is not probable that the agreeably tisappointed husband will ever move to Chicago and apply for a divorce on account of the innocent little

TREASURES IN HEAVEN .- We read of a philosopher, who, passing through a mart filled with articles of taste and luxury, made himself quite happy with this simple yet sage reflection: "How many things there are here, that I do not want!"
